DISCUSS MILLER CASE

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AND LA-BOR LEADERS CONFER AT THE WHITE HOUSE.

SAYS HIS DECISION IS FINAL

CHIEF EXECUTIVE REFUSES TO TAKE ANY FURTHER ACTION
IN THE MATTER.

Washington, Sept. 30.—An important conference took place at the White House last night between President Roosevelt and five members of the executive council of the American Federation of labor, including President Gompers and Mr. Mitchell, head of the miners' union, during which the case of Foreman Miller of the government printing office, who was dismissed because he had been expelled from the local Bookbinders' union, and afterwards was reinstated by direction of the president, was the principal topic of discussion. The conference was granted at the request of the labor leaders. The Miller case was very fully presented by the members of the executive council at the conference, at the close of which the president made a statement in which he announced that his decision not to dismiss Mr. Miller was final and the question of his personal fitness must be settled in the regular routine of administration.

The statement in regard to the Miller case is as follows:

Cannot Permit Discrimination.

"As regards the Miller case, I have little to add to what I have already said. In dealing with it, I ask you to remember that I am dealing purely with the relation of the government to its employees. I must govern my action by the laws of the land, which I am sworn to administer, and which differentiate any case in which the government of the United States is a party from all other cases whatsoever. These laws are enacted for the benefit of the whole people, and cannot and must not be construed as permitting discrimination against some of the people. I am president of all the people of the United States, without regard to creed, color, birthplace, occupation or social conditions. My aim is to do equal and exact justice as among them all. In the employment and dismissal of men in the government service, I can no more recognize the fact that a man does or does not belong to a union as being for or against him than I can recognize the fact that he is a protestant or a Catholic, a Jew or a Gentile, as being for or against him.

Grounds of Complaint.

"In the communications sent me by various labor organizations protesting against the retention of Miller in the government printing office, the grounds alleged are twofold:

"First—That he is a non-union man; second, that he is not personally fit. The question of his personal fitness is one to be settled in the routine of administrative detail, and cannot be allowed to conflict with or to complicate the larger question of governmental discrimination for or against him or any other man because he is or is not a member of a union. The latter is the only question now before me for decision; and as to this, my decision is final."

The members of the executive council attending the conference constituted the subcommittee appointed to take up the Miller case at the meeting of the executive council held in Washington last week. They asked the president for a conference to discuss labor legislation and the Miller case, and the following labor leaders attended the conference: Mr. Samuel Gompers, Mr. James Duncan, Mr. John Mitchell, Mr. James O'Connell and Mr. Frank Morrison.

Labor Leaders Not Satisfied.

From the manner of the labor leaders as they came from the White House it was evident they were not entirely satisfied with the result of their interview. They declined to be interviewed, Mr. Gompers referring the reporters to the statement that would be given out by the president's secretary regarding the Miller case. While he was talking, one of his associates wished it to be impressed on the reporters that the president's statement should be understood by them as an "entirely independent statement and not at the council's request."

The executive council brought to the attention of the president several matters in which it was interested. Among these were the enforcement of the eight-hour and anti-injunction bills which passed the house of representatives at the last session of congress.

The president, Mr. Gompers said, expressed himself as favorable to the principles of the short hour workday and his deep concern for the interest of the wage earners of the country.

Retail Grocers Combine.

Cincinnati, Sept. 30.—A combination of retail grocers in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, with a capital of $3,000,000, was organized here Tuesday. Its announced purpose is to protect itself from recent combination of wholesale grocers.

TRIAL OF JAMES H. TILLMAN.

Large Number of Witnesses Examined in Murder Case.

Lexington, S. C., Sept. 30.—Good speed was made Tuesday in the trial here of Former Lieutenant Governor James H. Tillman, who is charged with the murder of N. G. Gonzales, editor of the State. A large number of witnesses were examined.

One line of examination pursued by the state was with a view to laying the foundation for the introduction of dying declarations of N. G. Gonzales. Four of the physicians who participated in the operation on Mr. Gonzales after he was shot were on the stand. Much of the testimony of the physicians was technical.

Ambrose Gonzales, publisher of the State and a brother of N. G. Gonzales was called to the stand when the prosecution offered in evidence the files of the State for the year 1902, the purpose as announced by counsel to introduce the editorials of the State newspaper, of which N. G. Gonzales was editor from July 1, 1902, to Dec. 31, 1902. The editorials in question are in relation to James H. Tillman. Reading of the editorials was postponed so that the counsel for the defense might read them first.

Mr. Gonzales, on cross-examination, said the relations between his brother and Mr. Tillman were not pleasant, but he had never heard his brother use abusive language in regard to Tillman.

The defense objected to all the testimony relating to the carrying of a pistol by the defendant prior to the shooting, unless it could be shown that there was a connection between the carrying at that time and the shooting.

The court admitted the testimony with the provision that if it was not developed that it was competent, the jury would be instructed to disregard it.

VERY DECIDED CHANGE.

New York Stock Market Witnesses Buying in Large Volumes.

New York, Sept. 30.—A very decided change came over Tuesday's stock market. In place of the recent heavy liquidations and further shrinkage of values, there was buying in large volumes apparently by the leading financial interests, though it was more than likely that a goodly part of the day's purchases was really in the nature of supporting orders. It is also probable that some of the high grade stocks were absorbed for investment. The bears were not slow to observe the changed conditions and covered very extensively; in fact, their attitude helped in no small degree to sustain the list, which was at top prices at the close.

Conditions at the outset were not encouraging. The cables reported a situation bordering on demoralization in London, where consols had fallen to another low record with heavy declines in the leading Americans, notably the steel stocks. Initial transactions in this market reflected the tone of that in London, but after the first few minutes the market reversed its course under the lead of Pennsylvania, which was the pivotal issue of the day. That stock was openly bought by interests that represent the road financially and on sales of more than 123,000 shares made a net gain of 3 1/2 points.

A story went the rounds during the day that leading financial interests had agreed to protect the market by united action. The story was denied in authoritative circles.

LONG SEARCH ENDED.

Wife of a Minnesota Millionaire Finds Her Daughter.

Syracuse, N. Y., Sept. 30.—After a seven-year search through many states, in which scores of detectives participated and thousands of dollars were expended, Mrs. J. S. Robbins, wife of a millionaire of Willmar, Minn., Tuesday recovered her eleven-year-old daughter at Copenhagen, Lewis county, N. Y. Mrs. Robbins' first husband was a man named Starr. They had four children. While young they were placed in a school at Owatonna, Minn. Later Starr died and his wife married the millionaire.

She wanted her children back, but could find no trace of Myra Pearl. The girl was brought up by the matron of the school and adopted by Mr. and Mrs. Levi Trembly of Copenhagen. Mrs. Robbins could get no trace from here. A few days ago a detective who had a few visited Copenhagen, took kodak pictures of the children in the schools there. These were sent to Mrs. Robbins, who recognized her daughter in one of them.

Tuesday she arrived in the village and found her child. Mr. Trembly refused to give her up, but finally consented, with the understanding that he was to go to Minnesota and see if the child would receive good care. Last night he and Mrs. Robbins and the child left for the West. He is to receive $1,000 for the care of the child. The detective will receive a large reward.

Firemen Elect Officers.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—The National Firemen's association Tuesday chose the following officers: President, George C. Hale, Kansas City, Mo.; secretary, D. W. Gillen, Chicago; treasurer, John H. Fier, Whitewater, Wis. St. Louis gets the convention next year.

Double Tragedy at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Sept. 30.—Marie Jordan, saleswoman in a cloak store, was shot on the street by Edward de la Brossme, who then fired a shot into his head, inflicting a wound which probably will prove fatal. The tragedy was the result of jealousy.

CHRISTIAN POPULATION PUT TO DEATH BY THE SOLDIERS OF THE SULTAN.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Sept. 30.—A telegram received here from the camp of General Zontcheff, the commander-in-chief of the Macedonian insurgents, at Razlog, fifty-five miles from Sofia, announces that a general rising was proclaimed Sept. 27 in the districts of Razlog, Necropok, Demirhisar, Melnik and Seres and that all the insurgent bands in Eastern Macedonia had received direct orders to begin operations.

The chief hope of the revolutionary organization now centers in the outbreak in Eastern Macedonia, which is expected to assume considerable proportions, as the leaders there are all officers of the Bulgarian reserve. This, the sympathizers with the Macedonian cause hope, will arouse a war feeling in the Bulgarian army and force the government to espouse the Macedonian cause.

Dispatches received here from various sources say General Zontcheff has been greeted everywhere with the greatest enthusiasm and that all the peasants are flocking to his banner.

A dispatch from Rilo monastery says the town of Razlog has been in flames since Sunday night.

The insurgents are attacking Kutchevo and severe fighting is reported to be going on between the insurgent bands and the Turkish troops. The sound of artillery is plainly heard at Rilo. Another Rila is reported to have then place near Okhrida, twenty-eight miles from Monastir, in which fifty Turks were killed and many wounded.

It is reported that all the intelligent Bulgarians of the town of Okhrida were recently arrested on suspicion of communicating with the insurgent bands and were sent in chains to Monastir.

A letter from Philippopolis, dated Monday, says the authorities there have distributed rifles and ammunition in all the frontier villages, for use in case of an attack being made by the Turks.

A dispatch from Rila Jirila reports continuous fighting all along the lines across the Turkish frontier, results of which are at present unknown. It is stated that the town of Razlog has been destroyed by the Turks and the Christian population massacred. Fugitives are arriving in hundreds. All the wires have been cut. The Turkish troops are flying in disorder from Kutchevo.

FOREIGN MINISTERS TO MEET.

Turkey Will Afterwards Be Notified to Carry Out Reforms.

Odessa, Sept. 30.—The Bourse Gazette asserts that the coming meeting between Count Lamsdorff and Count Goluchowski, respectively Russian and Austro-Hungarian foreign ministers, will be followed by a notification to the porte that the powers insist upon the execution of the Austro-Hungarian reforms in Macedonia being entrusted to an exclusively Christian commission.

Insurgents Attack Turkish Quarters at Razlog With Bombs.

Salonica, Macedonia, Sept. 30.—A band of insurgents, Sept. 27, attacked with bombs the Turkish quarters at Razlog and were repulsed with loss.

Orders have been received to stop the military movements but large quantities of ammunition and fifteen guns were sent Tuesday to Demirhisar, forty-five miles from Salonica.

BRITISH CABINET CRISIS.

Its Prolongation Likely to Further Discredit the Government.

London, Sept. 30.—A prolongation of the ministerial crisis seems likely, judging from newspaper comment, to still further discredit the government. It had been taken for granted that Premier Balfour would complete the reconstruction of the cabinet before going to Sheffeld to deliver his long expected speech, explaining his fiscal policy, which is due on Oct. 1. It is now seen that that is impossible, and the apparent waiting for Lord Milner's decision is commented on in Conservative as well as Liberal papers as emphasizing the death of first-class statesmen in the Conservative ranks. A large section of the Unionist party is active under the report that Mr. Balfour is supporting Mr. Brodrick in the latter's determination to remain at the war office.

Patti's Robes For American Tour.

Mme. Adelina Patti, who is coming on a tour to the United States, where she will sing in sixty concerts, has ordered sixty magnificent robes from a Parisian dressmaker, says the New York American. She will appear every night in a different gown of stunning perfection. The expenses of her preparations in this line are estimated at $12,000.

BRITISH CABINET CRISIS.

Its Prolongation Likely to Further Discredit the Government.

London, Sept. 30.—A prolongation of the ministerial crisis seems likely, judging from newspaper comment, to still further discredit the government. It had been taken for granted that Premier Balfour would complete the reconstruction of the cabinet before going to Sheffield to deliver his long expected speech, explaining his fiscal policy, which is due on Oct. 1. It is now seen that that is impossible, and the apparent waiting for Lord Milner's decision is commented on in Conservative as well as Liberal papers as emphasizing the dearth of first-class statesmen in the Conservative ranks. A large section of the Unionist party is restless under the report that Mr. Balfour is supporting Mr. Brodrick in the latter's determination to remain at the war office.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb,

Vice-President of Women's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

THERE ARE MANY sickly women between the ages of 45 and 55, but there are very few invalids over 55 and 60 years of age. The change of life coming to a woman near her forty-fourth year, either makes her an invalid or gives her a new lease on life. Those who meet this change in ill health seldom live ten years afterward, while a woman who lays aside the active duties of womanhood in health seldom fails to live on in happiness, years after she has passed 60. This is truly a critical time.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb, of Toledo, Ohio, recognizes the change of life as a dangerous period and she also has faith in Wine of Cardui. She writes: "As I had always been troubled more or less at the menstrual period, I dreaded

the change of life which was fast approaching. While visiting with a friend I noticed that she was taking your Wine of Cardui, and she was so enthusiastic about it that I decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax. I do not dread it now, as I am sure that your Wine of Cardui will be of great benefit at this time."

Wine of Cardui is the remedy to re-inforce a woman against the shock that comes with the change of life. It re-establishes healthy functions after years of suffering. In doing this it has saved thousands of sufferers just in time. Do not wait until suffering is upon you. Thorough preparations should be made in advance. Begin the Wine of Cardui treatment today.

WINE of CARDUI

A million suffering women have found relief in Wine of Cardui.

NEW WAY TO GROW GINSENG

Illinois Farmer Shades His Plants by an Arbor With Good Results.

A. Graffam, a citizen of Dekalb, Ill., is having pronounced success in farming ginseng, and he proposes to engage in its cultivation on a still greater scale, says the Chicago Record-Herald.

Last fall he bought 1,000 roots and set them out in three long beds in his town garden plat, contriving to shade the beds by means of an arborlike structure. The roots put forth plants that in turn bore a large quantity of seed during the summer, and from this seed more roots will be started this fall.

Mr. Graffam has been experimenting on soil, mixing the loamy earth of his garden with dead leaves until it produced a healthy plant, but he thinks that the soil of Michigan is much better adapted to the growth of the plant and will experiment on some land that he owns in that state.

It is claimed that the demand for the root for exportation is as great as if not greater than ever, and the price now ranges as high as $6.50 a pound, and the seed is as valuable as the root.

Mr. R. D. Ransom, of Third Ave. East Brainerd, fireman for the Brainerd Lumber Co., says: "For as long as twelve or fourteen years I was a sufferer from kidney ailment. My back hurt me awfully; I could stoop but when I attempted to rise, severe pain caught me in the loins. Often in bed I could not change my position and when morning came I had to be helped out of bed. The kidney secretions were of a very unhealthy color and were otherwise irregular. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box did me so much good that I took another. The treatment cured me."

Parties bidding on same will be required to take down the brick and remove it at their own expense. For further particulars, inquire at the General office, Brainerd. 10063

Plain Talk.

"Shave," said the crusty patron laconically.

"Close?" inquired the barber.

"No. I'm not close, but I'm not in the habit of giving tips if that's what you're driving at."

Many seemingly unaccountable friendships hang upon a golden image.

CULINARY CONCEITS.

Too much baking powder in a cake will make it "crumbly."

Vegetables that will be done in twenty minutes' boiling will require from thirty to forty minutes if steamed.

Brush the bottom crust of pie with white of egg before putting in the fruit to prevent the juices being absorbed and the crust soggy.

Lettuces that have grown stalky and are useless as salads are a dish fit for a kingdom of kings if steamed and served like cabbages with butter, pepper and salt.

A variation of fried potatoes is obtained by slicing as for French fried, soaking in cold water to extract the starch overnight if possible and rolling in fine corn meal before plunging in deep fat.

Rolls from the bakery should be left in the bag, the top tightly twisted before putting in the oven to heat. For some reason the rolls come out crispier and fresher than when removed from the paper before heating.

When frying doughnuts have a kettle of boiling water on the stove, and as each doughnut is taken from the fat plunge it for a second in the water, then drain. The doughnuts are entirely free from greasy taste or feeling when so treated.

The Popular Girl.

You have, of course, met girls who, without your knowing anything definite against them, have impressed you as persons to be avoided, but have you also met the girl whom you, as well as everybody else, instinctively likes?

She is the girl who appreciates the fact she cannot have the best of everything in the world and is quite cheerful when her neighbor gets it.

She is the girl who never says thoughtless things which cause pain. She is the girl who, when you invite her out, takes care to please you by looking her best.

She is the girl who makes the world brighter to both young and old by being so cheery herself.

She is the girl of whom you instinctively know that you may ask a favor and that she will grant it feeling she has received one from you. In fact, she is the happy, unselfish, sympathetic girl who sees good in every one and is quite willing to play "second fiddle" whenever by so doing she can add to her neighbors' happiness.

Honors Were Easy.

"In the church I attended as a boy," said a New York man, "there were frequent clashes between the minister and the choir. The minister thought the choir irreverent and unmusical. The choir thought him a back number. Each tried to give the other a dig on every possible occasion.

"One Sunday, I remember, there was a clash wherein the honors were about even. The minister, after the choir had sung the opening hymn, said with a significant smile, that his text would be from Acts xx. 'And after the uproar was ceased.' But the choir, at the sermon's end, retorted neatly with the anthem, 'It Is Time to Awake From Sleep.'"

Miss Alice C. Fletcher.

Miss Alice C. Fletcher, now connected with the bureau of ethnology, is president of the Anthropological society of Washington. It was she who several years ago devised a system for loaning small sums of money to aid Indians to buy land and build houses for themselves. A lifelong student of aboriginal languages, poetry, music and customs, her latest work on Indian music and poetry will outlive the Indians themselves and give future generations an idea of what their music and poetry were like. — Washington Post.

Efficient Housekeepers Rise Early.

"It often surprises me," said the good housekeeper, "to have a woman say that it doesn't matter if she rises late in the morning because she has plenty of servants to look after things. As if a late mistress did not make a late household! The woman with plenty of servants is just the one who ought to rise early to look after them."

THE MAGIC COTTON.

How to Put a Hatful of the Fluffy Stuff in a Goblet.

Do you know that you can mystify your little friends when the proper opportunity occurs by putting a whole hatful of cotton into a small goblet?

A hatful of cotton put into a goblet! Impossible, you say? Not at all, and there is no catch or trick about it either. What makes the feat seem more remarkable is the fact that the glass is not empty in the first place, but is filled, or nearly filled, with alcohol. The raw cotton must have been carefully pulled apart into little shreds so as to be as light and fluffy as possible. In this condition it doesn't take very much of it to fill even a "stove-pipe" hat if it is laid in very gently. Then all you have to do is to take it out bit by bit and drop it into the glass. As it accumulates you must press it down on the bottom of the glass with a spoon or lead pencil, and by proceeding slowly and carefully you will finally succeed in getting it all into the glass without even causing the alcohol to overflow, to the great amazement of the spectators. — New York World.

THE MAGIC COTTON TRICK

Dickens' School Pets.

When Charles Dickens was a boy at Wellington House academy it was the secret pride of the students there that they owned more white mice, red polls and linnets than any other set of boys within their ken. These were kept in hatboxes, drawers and even in the school desks. A small but very accomplished mouse, which lived in the corner of a Latin dictionary in Dickens' desk and could draw Roman chariots, fire paper muskets and scale pasteboard ladders, fell at last into an overfull inkpot and lost both its white coat and its life. Dickens nevertheless won a prize for his Latin, and a well thumbed and blotted Horace which he once presented to his coach recently fetched a high price at an exhibition in England.

Incombustible Wood.

Alum and glue in equal parts are dissolved in water strongly saturated with salt. Both solutions are mixed together. Dip splinters of wood into the fluid until every part is saturated; let them dry and repeat the process. Wood prepared in such a way will not burn. To make the trick more interesting and to avoid the suspicion that the splinters are prepared mix them among other unprepared splinters after marking them in a certain way.

After burning a few splinters pick out one of the prepared ones and declare that by your magic influence the splinter you hold in your hand will become incombustible. Hand it over to the audience, and it is easily understood that nobody will be able to set it afire.

Turn the Edges In.

Dear little girl, if you would sew Have near each needleful thing— Your needle, thimble, scissors, thread, Your buttons on a string. Prepare your work with greatest care, 'Tis best ere you begin, And if you find the seams are rough Just turn the edges in.

Dear little girl, if you would grow Like flowers in the spring, Have near the tiny thoughtful deeds That early sunshines bring. Sweet temper, patience, love and trust The race will surely win, And if good resolutions fray Just turn the edges in. —Exchange.

He Loves Wild Animals.

The young emperor of Morocco is passionately fond of animals, especially wild ones, and a large, open square outside his favorite portion of the palace is entirely given over to them. Through the bars of their cages blink huge, tawny maned lions and spotted tigers, while gazelles, Barbary sheep, cranes and even wild boars roam about the grounds at will.

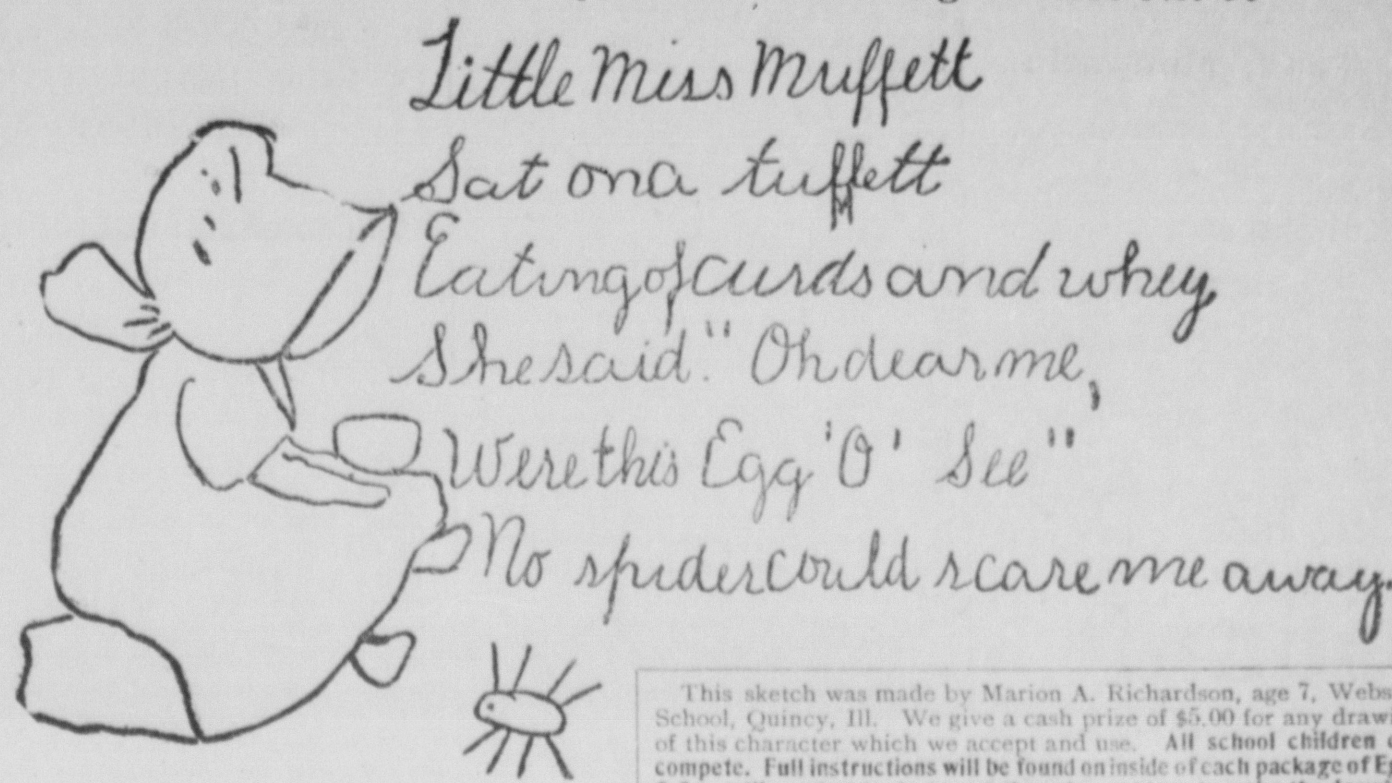

Royal Children's Clothes.

Prince Edward of Wales and his brothers are allowed to wear their old clothes at Sandringham and get themselves as dirty as they please.

While in London they have to change their attire four times a day and keep themselves always spick and span. It goes without saying that they much prefer Sandringham.

BRIEFLY TOLD.

Not Necessary to Leave Brainerd for Proof-You Have It Here.

Endorsement by residents of Brainerd.

Positive proof from Brainerd people. Briefly told for the public good. Such is the following testimony.

Mr. R. D. Ransom, of Third Ave. East Brainerd, fireman for the Brainerd Lumber Co., says: "For as long as twelve or fourteen years I was a sufferer from kidney ailment. My back hurt me awfully; I could stoop but when I attempted to rise, severe pain caught me in the loins. Often in bed I could not change my position and when morning came I had to be helped out of bed. The kidney secretions were of a very unhealthy color and were otherwise irregular. I commenced using Doan's Kidney Pills and one box did me so much good that I took another. The treatment cured me."

POLITICS IN YEW YORK.
Recent Developments Make the Situation More Complicated.
New York, Sept. 30.—Late developments tend to complicate rather than clear the local political situation. District Attorney Jerome, whose "whirlwind campaign" was the feature of the canvass of the fusionist side two years ago, and who has heretofore his dissatisfaction with Mayor Low's administration course, though he avowed his purpose of supporting the fusion cause this year, made a declaration last night at a "beefsteak" dinner given by Congressman Timothy J. Campbell, which those who heard it construed as signifying that under certain conditions he might give his adherence to the Tammany Hall ticket. "If," Mr. Jerome is quoted as saying, "a guaranty be given before the Tammany Hall convention on Thursday next, of the sincerity of the movement, and that those men are sincere and honest, I am going to stand by it, and if those men are handled as they should be, and if men are put in nomination whom honest men can support and people will say 'we have an honest government,' I will encourage it."
"I have stood for certain things all my life, and will continue to stand for those things for the balance of it, no matter where the rest of the gang goes. I will not stand for a ticket three-quarters of which belongs to another party."

The condition to which Mr. Jerome alluded in the last sentence quoted above was the subject of a conference at the residence of Mayor Low, leaders of the fusionist force being present. This conference was in the nature of a secret consultation but it is understood that it was decided to demand of Messrs. Grout and Farnes, nominees respectively for controller and president of the board of aldermen, a definite statement of their attitude toward the fusionist movement, and to require of them an unequivocal pledge of support of the head of the ticket or be stricken from the ticket.

COUNT HEDERVARY RESIGNS.
Hungarian Premier Quite Because of Adverse Vote.
Budapest, Sept. 30.—In consequence of an adverse vote in the lower house of the Hungarian diet Tuesday, Premier Hedervary again submitted his resignation, and telegraphed to Emperor Francis Joseph begging for its acceptance.

Count Hedervary resigned in consequence of his own party voting against him on the ground that his repudiation of the attacks made by the Austrian premier, Dr. von Koerber, upon Hungarian national rights in the reichsrath were not pronounced enough. Premier von Koerber had stated that Austria was prepared to go to war in defense of Emperor Francis Joseph's declaration on the subject of the Hungarian language and that other Hungarian demands and that it would not yield to the latter.

The situation is critical. It seems doubtful whether Francis Kossuth will be able to impress his peaceful policy on his followers.
The German merchants in Budapest are going in fear of their lives on account of the threats of death levelled at them.

VETERANS IN SESSION.
Spanish War Soldiers Listen to Reports of Officers.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 30.—After a day devoted to a parade and social festivities, the delegates to the convention of National Army and Navy Spanish War Veterans assembled in the hall of the Young Men's Republican club for their first business session. At the same time the women composing the National Auxiliary gathered in a room in the Second regiment armory to begin their deliberations. Of the two meetings the last named was by far the livelier and more interesting, because of differences over the suspension by President Alora A. Lewis of the District of Columbia auxiliary of which Mrs. Isabel Worrell Hall of Washington is president. Mrs. Hall was finally seated by legal procedure. Both the sessions were executive.
Credits were reported from 250 delegates, representing nearly every state and territory. The convention listened to reports of various officers, routine business of this sort consuming the entire session.

EMPLOYERS ORGANIZE.
"Open Shop" Said to Be the Foundation of the Association.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—A Federation of Manufacturers and Employers' associations, employing tens of thousands of skilled workmen, and with a combined capital of about a billion dollars, was formed in the Auditorium Annex Tuesday. Plans were made for a general meeting of representatives of employers' association and citizens' alliances in Chicago the first week in November, when a national employers' association will be formed.

"Our purpose is to call a halt on the present methods employed by union labor," said D. M. Parry, who is one of the promoters, "which allow no man the privilege of living unless he is a member of a labor organization. The 'open shop' is the foundation of this organization."

It is the purpose of the new association to fight all strikes, boycotts and other labor troubles in the courts.

MAJOR SAMUEL HAY KILLED.
Veteran of Two Wars Falls Down an Elevator Shaft.

Pittsburg, Sept. 30.—Major Samuel W. Hay met instant death last evening by falling from the fourth floor of the Arrott building through the elevator shaft to the basement, making a drop of six stories.

Major Hay, who is a member of one of Pittsburg's oldest families, was in the building on business, and as he stepped from the elevator at the fourth floor, it is said the cage was started before he was entirely out. His foot slipped through the opening between the car and the floor and as the elevator ascended his body dropped to the bottom.

Major Hay was a veteran of the Civil and Spanish-American wars. During the latter war he was commissary on the staff of Major General Young Davis and Wheeler.

QUIET NOW PREVAILS

NINE MEN UNDER ARREST FOR BEING IMPLICATED IN THE CANADIAN SOO RIOT.

WORKMEN RESIST DETENTION

TRAIN CREW COMPELLED TO FLEE FOR THEIR LIVES FROM ANGRY FOREIGNERS.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 30.—The arrest of nine men charged with being implicated in the riot at the Canadian Soo Monday of a mob of discharged employes of the Consolidated Lake Superior company and an attempt of a number of the men forcibly to resist detention by the concern at Wilde station on the Algoma Central, were among the developments in the situation at the Soo Tuesday. Numerous requests by employment agencies for the services of many of the employes thrown out of work by the closing of the concern and its various affiliated companies to which they are responding and the absence of destitution, have given the men hope, and with the exception of the incident mentioned, everything was again quiet Tuesday.

Mayor Plummer up to Tuesday has, with the sanction of the municipality, readily aided the needy who are declared to be few, but he announced in a statement last night that with the arrival of a detachment of the militia today all unemployed men of the company who have refused to accept the offers of work elsewhere will be forced to leave.

Last night and since the attacks by the mob on the company's office Monday, the local militia, reinforced by the police, has guarded the plant and offices of the company, but order has been observed and communication between the two Soos, which was ordered stopped, has been resumed. It is planned also to start the street cars on the Canadian side today.

Woodsmen Detained in Camps.

There are 500 woodsmen in the camps of the company, but as a measure of precaution the company, according to William Coyne, assistant to President Shields, will not allow them to come in until some time today, when all of the 310 troops en route will have arrived. Although they are said by Mr. Coyne to be well provided with food and to have been given good sleeping quarters, the men, he says, are dissatisfied, which has caused them to protest against being left at Wilde station, similar to that which occurred here Monday, but not so serious. The men, Mr. Coyne says, became angry when told they would be held at the station over night and began to throw rocks at the engine crew. The fusillade of missiles became so heavy that to escape with their lives, the crew, under pretense of switching the train after an engine and two coaches had been uncoupled, started down the main track on the Algoma Central road, leaving the foreigners behind. Some of them unwilling to stay there have walked to the Soo.

Mr. Coyne also said that his company had been liberal in providing for the men, but that some had refused to avail themselves of the offers, preferring to wait until funds could be secured by the company that they might cash their pay checks and living on the small earnings they had saved.
A detachment of the Canadian militia, which have been ordered to the Soo arrived here shortly after midnight.

On the arrival of the troops arrangements were made by the Consolidated Lake Superior company to take care of the detachment, which consisted of eighty-four men, and they were escorted to a boat where they will spend the night. In the morning they will leave for the plants of the company where the officials expect there may be trouble.

RAILWAY WORLD AT SEA.

President Mellen of the Northern Pacific Resigns.

New York, Sept. 30.—The unanimous election, ten days ago, of Charles S. Mellen, president of the Northern Pacific, to the directorate of the New York and New Haven, abundantly foreshadowed his elevation to the presidency of the latter company, conceded to be the second highest railway position in the United States.
It has just transpired that on Thursday last, in this city, Mr. Mellen tendered to the directors of the Northern Pacific his resignation as president, and it was accepted. It is now announced that on Oct. 21 he will be the unanimous choice of the directors of the New York and New Haven for the presidency of that company, and on Oct. 31 he will assume the duties of his new position.

With the exception of the exact dates these facts have been practically settled in the public mind, leaving as the one unsolved question the succession to the presidency of the Northern Pacific. Upon this the railroad world is at sea and the doubt has been generally expressed whether the man has yet been named.

WHILE TEMPORARILY INSANE.

Music Teacher Makes Two Attempts to Commit Suicide.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 30.—While suffering from temporary insanity, Miss Adelaide Pribbenow, a music teacher, last night threw herself out of a third-story window of a fashionable hotel, ran ten blocks to the railroad yards in the north end of the city, threw herself in front of a passing train and was ground to pieces. Her fall from the window was checked by the roof of an adjoining building, from which she fell to the ground below, which was soft, owing to rain.

REGULARS MANEUVERING.
Second Day's Work Consists of Establishing Outposts.

Camp Young, West Point, Ky., Sept. 30.—The preparation of an outpost, a proceeding not involving any contact between opposing forces, composed the second day's work done by the regular troops now in camp pending the arrival of the state guards. The combined maneuvers. Viewed from the standpoint of the spectator, the maneuvering seemed tame, but it is nevertheless highly important as it formed the connecting link between the clash of the blue and brown advance guards Monday and the attack and defense of the outpost which comes today. Three movements form collectively the whole problem given the regulars for their unaided solution.
On Thursday the state troops will begin to arrive and thereafter the regulars will be merged with them in the combined maneuvers.

ASSUMING A GRAVE PHASE.

Yellow Fever Situation at Laredo, Tex., Becoming Worse.

Laredo, Tex., Sept. 30.—The yellow fever situation here is beginning to assume a very grave phase. There are now in this city thirty-seven cases of fever, sixteen of which have been pronounced genuine by the Marine hospital service experts in charge, ten cases have been pronounced suspicious and eleven new cases were reported Tuesday, some of which have been announced as genuine, and others as suspicious. Among the cases in Nuevo Laredo that are reported very grave is that of United States Vice Consul J. G. Kimball.

Wisconsin Saloonkeeper Killed.
Rhinelander, Wis., Sept. 30.—The body of John J. Johnson, a saloonkeeper of Gargen, was brought here last night. His death resulted from blows delivered by Jerome Fry, a Soo Line section foreman, with whom Johnson had boarded at Gargen. Fry is now in custody, having given himself up. The assault is said to be due to non-payment of board by Johnson.

James McDonald, sixteen-year-old son of Michael McDonald of South Park, Minn., was drowned in the Mississippi river Tuesday as a result of the overturning of a canoe.

Ralph Williams, a foreman employed by railroad contractors near Dubois, Pa., was murdered last night by two unknown negroes who escaped. Five colored men are under arrest.

A NOTORIOUS CORPS.
The French Foreign Legion and Its Dangerous Characters.

The death penalty awarded a private in the French foreign legion for throwing his cap in his captain's face at Oran is an illustration of the merciless severity exercised in that famous corps. Shooting at sight is permitted the officers, who have to deal with dangerous characters from all quarters of Europe.

Nowhere is there such a corps, according to the London Chronicle. Its ranks are recruited from outcasts of all social ranks. Disgraced officers of the Russian service, deserters from the German army, broken scions of the Austrian nobility, fraudulent debtors from Belgium, forgers from Spain, homicides from America, ruined gamblers from Italy, are found in plenty in the ranks. No excuse is taken for a fault, and the slightest symptom of insubordination carries with it a swift passage to another world. It is understood that recruits are simply seeking refuge from the arm of the civil law.

The foreign legion is the only voluntarily enlisted corps in the French army. It has done excellent service against the Arabs and is always placed in the forefront of the fight.

The Harmless Grass Snake.

The poor, harmless grass snake is the subject of stories almost as wonderful as those related of the adder. The superstition that, however much you may hammer it, it will not die till the setting of the sun is widely held. A fable not so generally held to be true even at sundown it will not die if you should neglect to tell some one of what you have done. The rule on seeing one of these terrible creatures is to "hit it and tell"—that is, give it a good drubbing and run quickly and tell some one. The best snake story is from Leigh Sinton, near Malvern, according to a London correspondent. A laborer states that he had killed a grass snake and hung it on a tree. The blood dripped down and a toad came and swallowed some, dying instantly.

The fancy that makes this species poisonous or even harmful is a wild one, but how much more wild is that which attributes violent toxic properties to any chance drop of blood from its body! It might have been thought that the other popular belief that poisonous things cannot be poisoned would have saved the life of the poor toad.—London Express.

What Columbus Might Have Done.

There are relatives of Columbus living in Spain at the present time. It is said that gambling debts are keeping them poor. These persons look to the United States with wistful eyes, hoping that some patriotic American will confer on them a few millions in recognition of their distinguished ancestor. This fact led a statistician to work his brain, and he published the statement that had Columbus placed $1 at compound interest at 6 per cent 400 years ago his descendants today would possess a sum amounting to more than $8,600,000,000. When these figures were published Lyman J. Gage was secretary of the treasury. His attention was called to the tremendous possibility of a single dollar, and his comment was either a sincere remark or a well adapted pun. He said, "Indeed, to me this is a story of great interest."

POLITICS IN YEW YORK.

Recent Developments Make the Situation More Complicated.

New York, Sept. 30.—Late developments tend to complicate rather than
clear the local political situation.
District Attorney Jerome, whose “whirlwind campaign” was the feature of the canvass of the fusionist
side two years ago, and who has heretofore been the chief opponent of Mayor Low’s administration, though he avowed his purpose of supporting the fusion cause this year, made a declaration last night at a “beefsteak”
dinner given by Congressman Timothy J. Campbell, which those who heard it construed as signifying that under certain conditions he might give his
adherence to the Tammany Hall ticket.
“If,” Mr. Jerome is quoted as saying, “a guaranty be given before the Tammany Hall convention on Thursday next, of the sincerity of the movement, and that those men are sincere
and honest, I am going to stand by it,
and if those men are handled as they should be, and if men are put in nomination whom honest men can support
and people will say ‘we have an honest
government,’ I will encourage it.”

“I have stood for certain things all
my life, and will continue to stand for
those things for the balance of it, no
matter where the rest of the gang goes.
I will not stand for a ticket
three-quarters of which belongs to another party.”

The condition to which Mr. Jerome
alluded in the last sentence quoted
above was the subject of a conference at the residence of Mayor Low,
leaders of the fusionist force being present. This conference was in the nature of a secret consultation but it is understood that it was decided to demand of Messrs. Grout and Farnes,
nominations respectively for controller
and president of the board of aldermen, a definite statement of their attitude toward the fusionist movement
and to require of them an unequivocal
pledge of support of the head of the ticket or be stricken from the ticket.

COUNT HEDERVARY RESIGNS.

Hungarian Premier Quite Because of Adverse Vote.

Budapest, Sept. 30.—In consequence
of an adverse vote in the lower house
of the Hungarian diet Tuesday, Premier Hedervary again submitted his resignation, and telegraphed to Emperor Francis Joseph begging for its acceptance.

Count Hedervary resigned in consequence of his own party voting against
him on the ground that his repudiation of the attacks made by the Austrian premier, Dr. von Koerber, upon Hungarian national rights in the
relichrath were not pronounced enough. Premier von Koerber had stated that Austria was prepared to go to war in defense of Emperor Francis Joseph’s declaration on the subject of the Hungarian language and other Hungarian demands and that it would not yield to the latter.

The situation is critical, it seems doubtful whether Francis Joseph will be able to impress his peaceful policy
on his followers.

The German merchants in Budapest
are going in fear of their lives on account of the threats of death levelled
at them.

VETERANS IN SESSION.

Spanish War Soldiers Listen to Reports of Officers.

New Haven, Conn., Sept. 30.—After
a day devoted to a parade and social
festivities, the delegates to the convention of National Army and Navy Spanish War Veterans assembled in the hall of the Young Men’s Republican club for their first business session. At the same time the women
composing the National Auxiliary
gathered in a room in the Second regiment armory to begin their deliberations. Of the two meetings the last named was by far the livelier and more interesting, because of differences
over the suspension by President Alora A. Lewis of the District of Columbia auxiliary of which Mrs. Isabel Worrell Ball of Washington is president. Mrs. Ball was finally seated by legal procedure. Both the sessions were executive.

Credentials were reported from 250
delegates, representing nearly every state and territory. The convention
listened to reports of various officers,
routine business of this sort consum-
ing the entire session.

EMPLOYERS ORGANIZE.

“Open Shop” Said to Be the Foundation of the Association.

Chicago, Sept. 30.—A Federation of Manufacturers and Employers’ associations, employing tens of thousands of skilled workmen, and with a combined capital of about a billion dollars, was formed in the Auditorium Annex Tuesday. Plans were made for a general meeting of representatives
of employers’ association and citizens’
alliances in Chicago the first week in November, when a national employers’
association will be formed.

“Our purpose is to call a halt on
the present methods employed by union labor,” said D. M. Parry, who is one of the promoters, “which allow no
man the privilege of living unless he
is a member of a labor organization.
The ‘open shop’ is the foundation of
this organization.”

It is the purpose of the new association to fight all strikes, boycotts and
other labor troubles in the courts.

MAJOR SAMUEL HAY KILLED.

Veteran of Two Wars Falls Down an Elevator Shaft.

Pittsburg, Sept. 30.—Major Samuel
W. Hay met instant death last evening
by falling from the fourth floor of the Arrott building through the elevator
shaft to the basement, making a drop
of six stories.

Major Hay, who is a member of one of Pittsburg’s oldest families, was in the building on business, and as he stepped from the elevator at the fourth floor, it is said the cage was started before he was entirely out. His foot slipped through the opening between
the car and the floor and as the elevator ascended his body dropped to the bottom.

Major Hay was a veteran of the Civil
and Spanish-American wars. During the latter war he was commissary
on the staffs of Major Generals
Young, Davis and Wheeler.

NINE MEN UNDER ARREST FOR BEING IMPLICATED IN THE CANADIAN SOO RIOT.

TRAIN CREW COMPELLED TO FLEE FOR THEIR LIVES FROM ANGRY FOREIGNERS.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 30.—
The arrest of nine men charged with being implicated in the riot at the Canadian Soo Monday of a mob of discharged employees of the Consolidated Lake Superior company and an attempt of a number of the men forcibly
to resist detention by the concern at Wilde station on the Algoma Central,
were among the developments in the situation at the Soo Tuesday. Numerous requests by employment agencies
for the services of many of the employees thrown out of work by the closing of the concern and its various affiliated companies to which they are responding and the absence of destitution, have given the men hope, and
with the exception of the incident
mentioned, everything was again quiet Tuesday.

Mayor Plummer up to Tuesday has,
with the sanction of the municipality,
readily added the needy who are declared to be few, but he announced in a statement last night that with the arrival of a detachment of the militia
today all unemployed men of the company who have refused to accept the offers of work elsewhere will be forced to leave.

Last night and since the attacks by
the mob on the company’s office Monday, the local militia, reinforced by
the police, has guarded the plant and
offices of the company, but order has been observed and communication between the two Soos, which was ordered stopped, has been resumed. It is planned also to start the street cars
on the Canadian side today.

Woodsmen Detained in Camps.

There are 500 woodsmen in the
camps of the company, but as a measure of precaution the company, according to William Coyne, assistant to President Shields, will not allow them
to come in until some time today,
when all of the 310 troops en route
will have arrived. Although they are said by Mr. Coyne to be well provided with food and to have been given good
sleeping quarters, the men, he says,
are dissatisfied, which has caused them
to protest against being left at Wilde
station, similar to that which occurred
here Monday, but not so serious. The men, Mr. Coyne says, became angry
when told they would be held at the station over night and began to throw rocks at the engine crew. The fusilade of missiles became so heavy that
to escape with their lives, the crew,
under pretense of switching the train
after an engine and two coaches had been uncoupled, started down the main track on the Algoma Central
road, leaving the foreigners behind.
Some of them unwilling to stay there
have walked to the Soo.

Mr. Coyne also said that his company had been liberal in providing for the men, but that some had refused to avail themselves of the offers, preferring to wait until funds could be secured by the company that they might cash their pay checks and living on
the small earnings they had saved.

A detachment of the Canadian militia, which have been ordered to the Soo arrived here shortly after midnight.

On the arrival of the troops arrangements were made by the Consolidated
Lake Superior company to take care
of the detachment, which consisted of
eighty-four men, and they were escorted to a boat where they will spend the night. In the morning they will leave for the plants of the company where the officials expect there
may be trouble.

RAILWAY WORLD AT SEA.

President Mellen of the Northern Pacific Resigns.

New York, Sept. 30.—The unanimous
election, ten days ago, of Charles S.
Mellen, president of the Northern Pacific, to the directorate of the New York and New Haven, abundantly
foreshadowed his elevation to the presidency of the latter company, conceded to be the second highest railway position in the United States.

It has just transpired that on Thursday last, in this city, Mr. Mellen tendered to the directors of the Northern Pacific his resignation as president,
and it was accepted. It is now announced that on Oct. 21 he will be the unanimous choice of the directors of the New York and New Haven for the presidency of that company, and on
Oct. 31 he will assume the duties of his new position.

With the exception of the exact
dates these facts have been practically settled in the public mind, leaving as the one unsolved question the succession to the presidency of the Northern Pacific. Upon this the railroad world is at sea and the doubt has been generally expressed whether the
man has yet been named.

WHILE TEMPORARILY INSANE.

Music Teacher Makes Two Attempts
to Commit Suicide.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 30.—While
suffering from temporary insanity,
Miss Adelaide Pribbenow, a music
teacher, last night threw herself out
of a third-story window of a fashionable hotel, ran ten blocks to the railroad yards in front of a passing train and was ground to pieces. Her fall from the window was checked by
the roof of an adjoining building, from
which she fell to the ground below,
which was soft, owing to rain.

REGULARS MANEUVERING.

Second Day’s Work Consists of Establishing Outposts.

Camp Young, West Point, Ky., Sept.
30.—The preparation of an outpost,
a proceeding not involving any contact
between opposing forces, composed
the second day’s work done by the regular troops now in camp pending
the arrival of the state guards. The combined maneuvers. Viewed from the standpoint of the spectator, the maneuvering seemed tame, but it was
nevertheless highly important as it formed the connecting link between
the clash of the blue and brown advance guards Monday and the attack
and defense of the outpost which comes today. Three movements form
collectively the whole problem given
the regulars for their unaided solution.

On Thursday the state troops will begin to arrive and thereafter the regulars will be merged with them in the combined maneuvers.

ASSUMING A GRAVE PHASE.

Yellow Fever Situation at Laredo, Tex., Becoming Worse.

Laredo, Tex., Sept. 30.—The yellow fever situation here is beginning to assume a very grave phase. There are now in this city thirty-seven cases
of fever, sixteen of which have been pronounced genuine by the Marine
hospital service experts in charge, ten
cases have been pronounced suspicious and eleven new cases were reported Tuesday, some of which have been announced as genuine, and others
as suspicious. Among the cases in Nuevo Laredo that are reported
very grave is that of United States
Vice Consul J. G. Kimball.

Wisconsin Saloonkeeper Killed.

Rhineland, Wis., Sept. 30.—The body of John J. Johnson, a saloon-keeper of Gagen, was brought here
last night. His death resulted from blows delivered by Jerome Fry, a Soo Line section foreman, with whom Johnson had boarded at Gagen. Fry
is now in custody, having given himself up. The assault is said to be due to non-payment of board by Johnson.

A NOTORIOUS CORPS.

The French Foreign Legion and Its Dangerous Characters.

The death penalty awarded a private
in the French foreign legion for throwing his cap in his captain’s face at Oran is an illustration of the merciless
severity exercised in that famous corps.
Shooting at sight is permitted the officers, who have to deal with dangerous
characters from all quarters of Europe.

Nowhere is there such a corps, according to the London Chronicle. Its ranks are recruited from outcasts of all social ranks. Disgraced officers of the Russian service, deserters from the Austrian nobility, fraudulent debtors
from Belgium, forgers from Spain,
homicides from America, ruined gam-
blers from Italy, are found in plenty in the ranks. No excuse is taken for a fault, and the slightest symptom of insubordination carries with it a swift passage to another world. It is understood that recruits are simply seeking
refuge from the arm of the civil law.

The foreign legion is the only voluntarily enlisted corps in the French army. It has done excellent service against the Arabs and is always placed
in the forefront of the fight.

The Harmless Grass Snake.

The poor, harmless grass snake is the subject of stories almost as wonderful as those related of the adder. The superstition that, however much you
may hammer it, it will not die till the setting of the sun is widely held. A fable not so generally held to be that
even at sundown it will not die if you should neglect to tell some one of what you have done. The rule on seeing one of these terrible creatures is to “bit it
and tell”—that is, give it a good drub-
bing and run quickly and tell some one.
The best snake story is from Leigh
Sinton, near Malvern, according to a London correspondent. A laborer
states that he had killed a grass snake
and hung it on a tree. The blood
dripped down and a toad came and
swallowed some, dying instantly!

The fancy that makes this species
poisonous or even harmful is a wild
one, but how much more wild is that
which attributes violent toxic properties to any chance drop of blood from its body! It might have been thought that the other popular belief that poisonous things cannot be poisoned would
have saved the life of the poor toad.—

What Columbus Might Have Done.

There are relatives of Columbus living in Spain at the present time. It is said that gambling debts are keeping them poor. These persons look to the United States with wistful eyes, hoping that some patriotic American will confer on them a few millions in recognition of their distinguished ancestor.
This fact led a statistician to work his brain, and he published the statement
that had Columbus placed $1 at compound interest at 6 per cent 400 years
ago his descendants today would possess a sum amounting to more than $8,600,000,000. When these figures were published Lyman J. Gage was secretary of the treasury. His attention
was called to the tremendous possibility of a single dollar, and his comment
was either a sincere remark or a well
adapted pun. He said, “Indeed, to me
this is a story of great interest.”

DAMAGE SUIT

Judge Mantor Advised Demurer to
Amended Complaint in case of Paine Against City.

SUSTAINED BY JUDGE SEARLE.

The Demurer was Submitted to
the Court by Judge Mantor
Last Monday.

Judge Mantor was advised this afternoon that his demurer to amended complaint in the case of J. G. Paine vs. the city of Brainerd, submitted before Judge Searle, at Little Falls on Monday, has been sustained by the court and the city wins out in a case which has been watched with considerable interest for the past few years.

The suit grew out of the action of the city council in attempting to enforce the ordinance relating to the issuing of permits for repairing old buildings. A building belonging to the plaintiff in this suit, located on Laurel street, was torn down by order of Ex-Mayor Koop and thereafter Paine sued the city to recover $1000, the supposed value of the building.

At a hearing in the matter before Judge Searle at Wadena about a year ago Judge Mantor, who had been retained to look after the city's interests in the case, filed an objection to the complaint, but the same was overruled by the court. But the filing of this objection prompted Attorney Booker, of Wadena, to file an amended complaint. This request was granted and it was to this amended complaint that Judge Mantor demurred.

Judge Fleming was attorney for the plaintiff when the suit was commenced, but being afterwards elected city attorney he could not serve in this capacity and Attorney Booker, of Wadena, was retained.

The marriage of Miss Marie Low, of this city, and Gilbert W. Chadbourne, of Minneapolis, will occur this evening at the home of the bride's parents on 7th street north. SOME ARTISTIC WORK.

The McFadden Millinery Parlors are the Scene of Gay and Charming
Collection of Hats.

This afternoon the McFadden Millinery parlors presented a scene of gaiety the event being the regular fall opening of this popular emporium. The large stock of new and swell hats have been carefully and artistically arranged and everything is in fine order. An orchestra has been stationed in one of the rear rooms and during the afternoon and evening discoursed some excellent music. Tonight the orchestra will be present again and it is expected that there will be an unusually large turnout of the ladies.

About the most artistic feature of the store is the display in the windows. They are as pretty as anything that has ever been attempted in this line in the city.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

MAHARA'S MINSTRELS.

The next attraction to be seen at the Brainerd opera house is Mahara's big colored minstrel company, probably the best organization of its kind touring the country. They carry a large band and orchestra and promise a performance overflowing with the latest songs, dances, specialties and witty sayings. George Titchner is the principal comedian. He is undoubtedly one of the funniest men in his line of work and is sure to have something very funny to offer Brainerd theatre goers Saturday, October 10th, the date for the appearance of the company here.

WILLIAM OWEN.

William Owen, supported by J. W. McConnell, will be an attraction at the Brainerd theatre shortly, presenting a new romantic drama, "When Louis XI was King." The play is by Mr. Owen, and is based on Sir Walter Scott's famous novel, "Quentin Duward." A most elaborate production has been made of it.

COLLEGE BOYS IN KANSAS.

Princeton Student Tells of Their Experiences as Harvesters.

A few "hard luck" stories have drifted east from the harvest fields of Kansas, where college men have shown "the mettle of their pasture" in helping to gather one of the greatest wheat crops ever grown in the "Jayhawk State," says the New York World.

Quite a different story is that of W. J. Simpson, a Princeton student of New York, who in a letter written from St. Louis says the men who came from the east in response to the call for harvesters had no difficulty in obtaining employment, but that only a few of them were able to hold out under the fierce heat of the sun in the harvest fields and the long hours of work. For instance, out of thirty-two easterners who were sent to Ness county only ten stuck, but of these ten six were college men.

Mr. Simpson also bears cheerful and convincing testimony to the hearty welcome accorded the men by the farmers and the generous treatment given in many cases. One man who worked only two hours and was overcome by the heat was cared for by his employer four days and then returned to work, and when the wheat was cut the farmer paid him for the full time he had been with him, making no deduction for the four days. The men in many cases were compelled to sleep in the granary or in the barn, but this was because it was impossible to provide other accommodations. They also rose at 4 or 4.30 o'clock and, with time for breakfast, which always included pie, worked until 11.30. Then followed dinner and a two hour rest and work until 8 o'clock. Of men who failed to "make good" in the harvest field many were given lighter work at reasonably good wages.

RAILROAD GOSSIP

A dispatch from New York says it is now stated that Chas. S. Mellen will retire from the presidency of the North-erd Pacific Nov. 1. Formal announcement is likely to be made after the annual meeting of the stockholders Oct.
6, and, as previously announced, it is understood that Mr. Mellen's successor
will be one of the present officials of the company.

Objection to the plan of rearrange-
ment of the Northern Pacific's Minnesota division is one of the main difficulties to be adjusted between the management and the engineers and firemen.
The transfer of men and engines, it is
said, will disarrange the advancement
plan in vague on the system, and no
means of avoiding the difficulty has been suggested by either men or road.—

CITY WINS IN DAMAGE SUIT

Judge Mantor Advised Demurer to
Amended Complaint in case of
Paine Against City.

SUSTAINED BY JUDGE SEARLE.

The Demurer was Submitted to
the Court by Judge Mantor
Last Monday.

Judge Mantor was advised this afternoon that his demurer to amended complaint in the case of J. G. Paine vs. the city of Brainerd, submitted before Judge Searle, at Little Falls on Monday,
has been sustained by the court and the city wins out in a case which has been watched with considerable interest for the past few years.

The suit grew out of the action of the city council in attempting to enforce
the ordinance relating to the issuing of permits for repairing old buildings. A building belonging to the plaintiff in this suit, located on Laurel street, was torn down by order of Ex-Mayor Koop
and thereafter Paine sued the city to recover $1000, the supposed value of the building.

At a hearing in the matter before
Judge Searle at Wadena about a year
ago Judge Mantor, who had been retained to look after the city's interests
in the case, filed an objection to the complaint, but the same was overruled
by the court. But the filing of this objection prompted Attorney Booker, of Wadena, to file an amended complaint.
This request was granted and it was to
this amended complaint that Judge Mantor demurred.

Judge Fleming was attorney for the
plaintiff when the suit was commenced,
but being afterwards elected city attorney he could not serve in this capacity
and Attorney Booker, of Wadena, was retained.

CHADBOURNE--LOW

Nuptials will Occur this Evening at the Home of the Bride's Parents on Seventh Street North.

The marriage of Miss Marie Low, of this city, and Gilbert W. Chadbourne,
of Minneapolis, will occur this evening
at the home of the bride's parents on 7th street north. The wedding will be a quiet affair, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties and a few close friends and neighbors being invited.

SOME ARTISTIC WORK.

The McFadden Millinery Parlors are the Scene of Gay and Charming
Collection of Hats.

This afternoon the McFadden Milli-
ney parlors presented a scene of gaiety
the event being the regular fall opening of this popular emporium. The large stock of new and swell hats have been carefully and artistically arranged and everything is in fine order. An orchestra has been stationed in one of the rear rooms and during the afternoon
and evening discoursed some excellent music. Tonight the orchestra will be present again and it is expected that there will be an unusually large turnout
of the ladies.

About the most artistic feature of the
store is the display in the windows.
They are as pretty as anything that has ever been attempted in this line in the city.

MUSIC AND DRAMA.

MAHARA'S MINSTRELS.

The next attraction to be seen at the Brainerd opera house is Mahara's big colored minstrel company, probably the best organization of its kind touring the country. They carry a large band and orchestra and promise a performance
overflowing with the latest songs, dances,
specialties and witty sayings. George Titchmer is the principal comedian. He is undoubtedly one of the funniest men
in his line of work and is sure to have something very funny to offer Brainerd
theatre goers Saturday, October 10th,
the date for the appearance of the company here.

WILLIAM OWEN.

William Owen, supported by J. W.
McConnell, will be an attraction at the Brainerd theatre shortly, presenting a new romantic drama, "When Louis XI
was King." The play is by Mr. Owen,
and is based on Sir Walter Scott's famous novel, "Quentin Dward." A most elaborate production has been made of it.
